SIR PHILIP RECKITT EDUCATIONAL TRUST EDUCATIONAL TRAVEL GRANTS

The Trust was established in 1944 by the late Sir Philip Reckitt. Sir Philip was a former chairman of Reckitt and Sons Limited and he had always taken a great interest in educational matters particularly for the benefit the Company's employees. The Trust is a registered charity (Registered Number 529777).

OBJECTS OF THE TRUST

The object of the Trust is to assist with education in the languages, business methods, social services and customs of any country or in any other subject by contributing towards the cost of travel, residence and attendance at conferences, lectures and educational courses.

DO YOU QUALIFY?

Awards will only be made to applicants who are normally resident in the former East Riding of Yorkshire (including Hull) or the County of Norfolk (as shown on the map on the SPRET Website http://www.spret.org/new_qualify.html).

Due to financial constraints the Trustees are unable to make grants in respect of general maintenance and course costs other than where such costs relate to educational travel.

PROCEDURE FOR APPLICATION

Applications must be made on the official forms. Applicants must clearly outline the nature of the project for which a grant is being sought (if necessary applicants should attach a single sheet of A4 giving such further details as they consider appropriate). All applications must be supported by the Applicants school, college or university. Other Applicants need the support of their employer or a suitable referee with whom the Trustees can communicate. Awards will normally be made upon an individual basis and not to groups, exploration societies or expeditions

1. All applications must have the support of your Head Teacher, Principal, or Employer, who should comment upon the application and provide a personal reference. If you are connected with the University of Hull or the University of East Anglia your application should be accompanied by a letter of recommendation from the appropriate Head of Department or Vice Chancellor.
2. Applications received less than six weeks prior to the proposed date of departure will not normally be considered.
3. Repeat applications for identical activities are not normally considered.

It is a condition of any award made by the Trustees that all successful Applicants provide a report upon the project in respect of which the award is made within 3 months of the conclusion of the project or course of study. The Trustees wish to underline this obligation to Applicants and those supporting the application in order to avoid the unnecessary expense and inconvenience of "chasing" these reports.
